Commercial considerations of electricity network charging reform

Learning and development objectives:

- Understand network charging reforms and how electricity network charges are (or will be) applied to users
- Examples illustrating how network charges will be levied on different types of network user
- Overview of the timeline for changing electricity network charging arrangements

Session 1 – Getting on the network

10.00	Introduction & welcome • Tech check! • Aims and objectives

60 mins	Overview
	• Summary of principles underpinning reformed electricity network charging
	  ○ Overview of reform workstreams
	• Overview of the RIIO process
	  ○ Collection of 'Maximum Allowed Revenue' via network charging methodologies
	Connecting to the network
	• Paying for new connections
	  ○ 'shallow(er)' charges
	• Access SCR reforms
	  ○ Connection boundary
	  ○ Access rights and curtailment
	Example: Connection boundary/ access rights illustration

11.15	Q&A, what we will cover off in future sessions and close

Session 2 – Electricity transmission network charges

10 am	Introduction & welcome • Aims and objectives

60 mins	Transmission network charges
	• Demand charging
	  ○ Residual, locational, and temporal
	  ○ Illustrative example
	• Generation charging
	  ○ Residual, locational, and temporal
	  ○ Illustrative example

	• BSUoS ○ Recovering from demand, ‘fixed’ charges • Timeline and ongoing reform – TNUoS task force • Overview of key changes in transmission network charging from ‘old’ to ‘new’
11.15	Q&A, what we will cover off in future sessions and close

Session 3 – Electricity distribution network charges

10 am	Introduction & welcome • Aims and objectives

60 mins	Distribution network charges
	• Demand charging
	  ○ Residual, locational, and temporal
	  ○ Illustrative example
	• Generation charging
	  ○ Residual, locational, and temporal
	  ○ Illustrative example
	• Timeline and ongoing reform – DUoS SCR
	• Overview of key changes in distribution network charging from ‘old’ to ‘new’

11.15	Q&A and close